The differences and similarities between Social Action, Programs, and Projects

- A program is a comprehensive plan to respond to a societal problem. It consists of many projects. It is long range.
- A project is a specific effort to help reach a program goal. It is usually short in duration. It is usually a one-time effort that can be repeated.
- Social Action identifies existing public policy on an issue or the need for public policy. It is ongoing.

There is Power in our numbers; there is Power in our voices.
