Subject: Juneteenth Reflections

To: dstatxnews@gmail.comHappy Freedom Day Sorors!

Juneteenth holds immense significance and signifies the liberation of all enslaved individuals in Texas, proclaimed by Union General Gordon Granger on June 19, 1865, a staggering two and a half years after President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation. Today serves as a reminder of the unceasing struggle for justice and equality.

As I reflect on my candidacy for Chair, 2025 National Nominating Committee, I am also reminded of our sisterhood's responsibility to confront and eradicate racial injustice and inequality and strive towards creating a world that is inclusive for all.

I am committed to working diligently to find and cultivate candidates that are equally as dedicated to continuing the fight for justice that was long denied our ancestors.

Sincerely in Sisterhood and Service,

Janelle R. Baker, Ph.D.
